Re: United States v. Scott Yeager, Cr. 3-093-6, Appeal-5th Cir. 06-20321

Dear Mr. Howes:

This is a follow-up to our letter dated January 7, 2009. At this time we want to inform you of a recent development in the above-captioned case and to ensure that you and the members of the shareholders' class action lawsuit are aware of the upcoming oral argument before the U.S. Supreme Court.

Oral Argument in this case is scheduled for March 23, 2009 at 10:00 a.m., but seating is limited and on a first come, first seated basis. Seating for the argument will begin at 9:30 a.m., and persons who wish to attend the argument will need to line up on the Front Plaza in front of the Supreme Court Building, located at 1st and East Capitol Sts., NE, Washington, DC. The issue before the Court is whether, under the collateral estoppel component of the Double Jeopardy Clause, the jury's verdict that Scott Yeager was not guilty on some counts at the first trial bars the government from retrying Yeager on other counts on which the jury was unable to reach a verdict.

We appreciate your continued assistance in providing notice of case events to members of the shareholders' class action lawsuit captioned Newby et al. v. Enron Corp., et al., No. H-01-3624.

Sincerely,
